McComb, Ohio

Like many small towns, McComb has been affected by changing economics and attitudes. Long time residents remember when our Main Street was filled with local people providing goods and services to local people. Today, many of our commercial buildings are vacant. We refuse to accept that this is the inevitable decline of our village and watch it slowly decay. We need to band together to reinvent and revitalize McComb into a small and vibrant village once again!

For several months a small group of dedicated individuals representing many facets of McComb and the surrounding townships have been meeting with a facilitator to create an organization that will spearhead the economic development of McComb and the surrounding townships. Core values of a commitment to purpose, an open minded inclusive mindset, motivation to succeed, patience and optimism and resiliency have been established. Goals for the next quarter, next year and a three year plan have been established.

Plans are in place for local events and networking opportunities to showcase local business and help attract new opportunities to our community.

As either a current business in or around McComb, or a civic organization (including businessmen's clubs and churches) or even as an individual, you are undoubtedly interested in the revitalization of McComb. A small group of people can't do it alone. It is going to take a village to reinvent a village! We are asking you to join us.

We are asking everyone who lives in and around McComb to become a member of the McComb Economic Development Organization. It will be a non-profit organization. The membership fees will be used to bring additional businesses into town, assist those who would like to develop a new business, and support existing businesses.

In addition to supporting the Economic Development Organization, your membership benefits will include:

- Reduced rates for events
- Company name and contact information will be included in as many publications and displays as possible
- Invitations to McComb EDO educational and networking events to help you grow your business
- Access to community professionals and resources to help you along the way!

Please make your financial commitment today for the future of McComb!
